VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

The Winthrop Daughters will meet with Miss Wright on Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

A drama of strong heart interest and good climaxes is what "The Face at the Window" is, which can be seen at the West End hall tonight, Friday.

Who is R. H. Gruber? If he is a new-comer he hasn't shown himself, although his name has appeared in a Newberry print.

"The Kid Soldiers of the Sixties," reprinted from the Newberry Observer, is an interesting production and a valuable contribution to the historical literature of the times it portrays.

Some are bachelors because they are unable to choose between beauty and intellect.—Aiken Journal and Review. Beauty and intellect go hand in hand in Newberry.

Here's good news: The DeKoven quartet will occupy the vaudeville stage at the Opera House next week. It is said to be fine, with a change of songs daily.

The next attraction in the marriage line will be at Mayes' Book and Variety Store, on the 16th. In the meantime examine the valuable bridal presents there.

There was frost in April and later last year. We are not on safe ground yet with this fickle weather. Warm a day, cool next, in its constantly alternating way.

The petition for the early closing of stores is being circulated and being generally signed. All the merchants and other business men have not been seen.

If we could run this newspaper so as to please every one we would expect to grow a full set of wings within less than one week.—York Times. Isn't it the truth?

We're glad it is not the custom to inaugurate new flats at the movie shows.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat. What do you think of that, "Biograph"?

The Great Council of Red Men will meet in Newberry on next Monday and Tuesday, and the State Sunday school convention on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

On the 23rd of last month some one at Newberry left a lady's black fur on the train from Laurens to Columbia. The owner can recover the fur by calling at the C. N. and L. depot.

The Calvin Crozier chapter will come in for next benefit show at the Opera House, which is to be followed by another benefit performance for the High school. Wednesday is always "benefit day."

The music by the Swiss Bell Ringers at the Opera House on Tuesday night was extraordinary as a whole. The man who says it was ordinary is not a lover of and doesn't know music when he hears it.

Jacob Schiff and J. J. Hill both predict that the war will end by October 1. We hope these gentlemen are as successful prophets as they are business men.—Spartanburg Journal. May it be so, if it doesn't end sooner.

"Who is the most beautiful girl in South Carolina?" asks the Columbia Record. That's easy.—Spartanburg Journal. We see your point, S. J., but we have right here in Newberry evidence of the fact that there is not a more beautiful one anywhere.

The Newberry band, under the control of Director W. A. Wherry, at the Opera House on Wednesday night, sustained its reputation for excellence. The performance was a treat to the large audience, which showed its pleasure by hearty applause.

If those Charleston boys thought they could play ball they had another think coming after the Newberry boys got through with them, take it from us. We are with our boys on the games, from base ball to snow ball—before they get to foot ball.

It was a pleasure to visit the Newberry Observer and The Herald and News when in Newberry last week. Both of these papers have a fine weekly circulation. We read both of them with interest. They are welcome visitors at the Presbyterian office. They are full of news and cover their country admirably.—A. R. Presbyterian.

See "The Face at the Window," at West End hall tonight, Friday. It will look good to you. But if you are nearer "The Only Girl" you will have a chance to see her at the Long Lane school house the same night. She will look good to you. "The Face at the Window" and "The Only Girl" are two pretty things, and worth while.

Don't be deceived by the present high price of cotton and plant more than you originally intended. Remember it always goes up about planting time. Raise all the foodstuff for man and beast you can and then raise cotton.—Abbeville Medium. Sounds like good advice.

Sheriff Blease and Deputy Dorroh went on Thursday morning to Mr. Tom Kinards, at Bachman chapel and put the hounds on tracks of chicken thieves from the night before. The hounds trailed three negroes, who were caught and brought to jail. Quick and good work from a stale scent. Blease, Dorroh and bloodhounds are hard to keep off the track.

Even the Opera House rat was affected by the music on Wednesday night. The ladies didn't relish the playing of the rat, which was particularly active during "Home, Sweet Home," very appropriate to the occasion. That piece of music was especially appealing to the audience, showing the interpretation of this popular song by the bands of the different nations.

Clerk of Court Goggans is now paying out the pension money, having received a check for $5134.50, the largest pension check for Newberry in several years. There are at present 167 pensioners for this county, the highest paid pensioner being Veteran Jno. N. Bass, who gets $72 and is the only member of class B. There is a raise in Class C, 2 and 4, each member now receiving $28.50, formerly $24. Class C, 1 and 3, remain the same, $48.

"Come out, come out and greet the morn! Come out among the barley! Come out anywhere, so it's out! Emerge humanity, from your gas-laden cell bed rooms and take a few gulps with me of the rarest liquor, omniscent knows how to brew; to-wit: Air. It flows over the wide ocean, it descends from the mountains, it breathes from the woods, it streams across the plains; it doesn't cost a cent and it's worth a million dollars a swallow—priceless both ways.—Dr. Crane in New York Globe.

"The new generation will be wedded to the movies. You won't be able to satisfy them with anything else." It's a startling and revolutionary prophecy. Seeing whether it comes true or not is one of the many things worth living for. And even those who lament the probable truth of it needn't put on such doleful faces. We may be sure that if the new drama wins over the old, and wins for keeps, it will be because it is superior, filling mankind's dramatic demands more fully than any other drama has ever done.—Augusta Chronicle.

Newberry Beats Charleston.

In a listless game, which consumed more than two hours, Newberry defeated the College of Charleston team here Tuesday by a score of 12 to 6. The playing of both teams at times was ragged.

Newberry won by taking advantage of long hits. The game was marred by an unfortunate accident to Dick, Charleston's second baseman, who was spiked by Lominack as the latter slid into second.

For Newberry, Renken, Brooks and Lominack hit of two sacks apiece, while Birchmore got two and Pinckney one. Score by innings:

Charleston ..... 0 2 0 0 0 1 2 1—6
Newberry ..... 2 0 0 2 5 0 0 3—12

Batteries: Lebby, Birchmore and Woods; Lominack, Sease and Renken. Umpire, Hardeman.

Death of Mrs. Mahon.

Mrs. Emma McKellar-Hunt Mahon, wife of Mr. J. Percy Mahon, died at her home in this city on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, of Bright's disease, with which she had long suffered and several times before had been at the point of death.

Besides her husband, who is ill, she leaves three daughters, Mrs. Lillie Hunt Turnipseed, Misses Rebecca and Mary Eliza Mahon.

The funeral arrangements had not been made at this writing.

"The Only Girl."

The editor attended the presentation of this play at the Jolly Street school on Wednesday night. The attendance was not as large as at the first presentation, though there were some 75 persons present. The young folk did the job mighty well and some of them display considerable histrionic talent. The play will be put on at Long Lane school this, Friday, night and the troupe will do even better than at their home school, because they will be among new scenes and surroundings. "Lindy, a black diamond," is a fine impersonation of the old time darkey and "Dorothy, sometimes called 'Dot,'" is especially good. In fact all of the characters are well rendered.

It was really gratifying to see to what a great extent the school spirit prevails in this community.

Can that "electric dishwasher" break them any faster than the regulation maid?—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

PROF. S. J. DERRICK UNDECIDED

Does Not Know Whether He Will Accept Superintendency of Education—His Statement.

Prof. S. J. Derrick, who was appointed county superintendent of education by the State board of education on Tuesday, was seen by a representative of The Herald and News and asked if he was an applicant, and if not would he accept the position. Prof. Derrick made the following statement, which he said was all that he wanted to say about it at this time.

Prof. Derrick is now and has been for a number of years a professor in Newberry college. Further than his own statement The Herald and News does not know anything about the action of the State board, except what was published in the daily papers. Prof. Derrick does not say who caused the deadlock and neither did the dailies. It is understood that there were several applicants for the position. There were a good many rumors about the action of the board, but until these are verified The Herald and News will say no more than print what Prof. Derrick says is all he cares to say. The following is the statement handed The Herald and News by Prof. Derrick:

"Prof. Derrick was very much surprised when called up by Mr. Swearingin, State superintendent of education, Tuesday night, and informed that he had been unanimously elected by the State board of education superintendent of education for this county. The board, after twelve ballots, seemed hopelessly deadlocked, then his name was proposed and he was elected.

"He was not an applicant for the position, did not expect it, and does not know whether he can accept it. However, he was urged to take some time to consider the matter, and will do so."

Blair-Cromer.

Miss Nora Blair, of Blairs, and Mr. H. Edgar Cromer, of Spartanburg, were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Jack Blair yesterday evening at 8 o'clock. The newly-wedded couple left for their home in Spartanburg, where the groom has a position in the hardware store of Crawford & Montgomery. He is a son of Mr. W. D. Cromer, of this county, and is well known in Newberry, where he has clerked, his last position here being at the grocery store of Summer Bros. Among the attendants at the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cromer, Messrs. Arthur and Ivy Cromer. Congratulations and well wishes are extended the happy couple.

Invitation Received.

The Herald and News acknowledges receipt of the following:

Mr. and Mrs. C. McPherson Ravenswood request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Imogene, to Mr. Hector Braitwaite, on Friday, April the sixteenth, nineteen hundred fifteen, at Mayes' Book and Variety Store.

Easter Service at Central Methodist Church.

On Easter Sunday the service at Central church was unusually attractive, enjoyable and profitable. The auditorium was well filled at the morning service and the pastor, Rev. E. E. Dibble, preached a forceful sermon. The choir, under the direction of Mr. R. E. Allen, organist of Central church, sang beautiful anthems which added greatly to the pleasure of the service.

A Correction.

Because Lindsey Booser, O'Neill school, was not reported as winning second honor in the boys' declamation contest for elementary school on Fair and Field day, the O'Neill school is raised to 27 points.

Sadie Goggans.

Congress having adjourned, the president yesterday visited the zoo in the park.—Kansas City Star.

IN NEWBERRY A. R. P. CHURCH

The Newberry A. R. P. Sabbath school observed the first Sabbath of April as promotion day. Three years ago the elementary departments were graded and this is the first exercise of the kind that has been held under the new system. A regular course of study has been pursued. The international lessons have been used, together with memory work in the catechism and scripture as supplemental. Certificates of honor were given to the pupils who finished the prescribed work and the pupils were advanced to the next department. A number of diplomas were also presented to pupils who had recited perfectly the Shorter Catechism.

The exercises were planned to converge on the theme, "The Open Bible." The first part of the program presented facts about the Bible through striking symbols and acrostics. In the latter part of the program the classes gave in concert a part of the scripture memorized, the juniors reciting the ten commandments, the 121st psalm and the 12th chapter of Romans.

The certificates were presented by the superintendent, Dr. E. C. Jones, in a very interesting and appropriate address.

The 11 o'clock hour was given over to this service and from the moment the children entered the church, marching in separate columns up the two aisles, singing the beautiful words, "This is the day the Lord hath made, in it we glad will be," till the close, the exercises were followed with closets interest by the large congregation present. The music was especially beautiful and appropriate.

If the plans of this school are carried out these exercises will be held each year hereafter.

Next Tuesday's Pictures.

Synopsis: Sally's father was the parson of a poor church. Sally, though in rage, had artistic instincts, and in order to get flowers for the church vases she invaded the garden of old Annesley and gathered them without the formality of asking for permission. Annesley was annoyed at the mysterious disappearance of his pet flowers, and in a quarrel with his gardener received the old servant's apron in his face.

Giles, son of the gouty, tsey Earl of Bateson, is expelled from his college because of his boyish instincts of mischief. His father places him in the hands of a private tutor from whom he escapes. Annesley gives him the gardener's apron and puts him in charge of his roses. Sally makes another raid, is caught by Giles, but Giles takes pity on her and their acquaintance ripens into friendship. During one of their walks together they happen on a gypsy camp. One of the gypsies tells Sally that she will marry a nobleman's son and presents her with a wishing ring. Naturally superstitious, Sally construes coincidences as replies to her wishes.

Her attempts to bring father and son together when she finds who Giles is, and her many curious adventures form a beautiful and touching story, a real "Peg o' My Heart" of the films. The ending is the happy marriage of the young lovers, and in acting and story the picture will please and move you.

At St. Luke's.

Prof. S. J. Derrick, of Newberry college, on next Sunday at 11 a. m., will address the St. Luke's congregation in their church near Prosperity. Prof. Derrick is an instructive and forceful speaker, and will no doubt be received by a large and appreciative audience. The public generally is invited to attend.

Clean-up Week.

At the request of the Civic association, the mayor has designated the week beginning April 12 for the purpose of giving the town a thorough cleaning. The thoroughness, however, will depend very largely upon the co-operation of the citizens.

In order to advertise the matter and to stress the importance of this general cleaning of the town, the mayor has hand handbills printed and widely distributed. An extra force of hands and wagons will be on duty next week, so each householder may rest assured that all trash collected for carting will be taken away. The association has requested the board of health to instruct the health officer to inspect the premises of every resident after clean-up week, and to report any failure to carry out the purposes of this movement.

The association wants Newberry to be a clean town—first, because it is a crime against the health of the community not to have it so; second, because of the pleasure it gives to see things clean and sanitary. Two State conventions are to meet here this month, so for the sake of the impression on these visitors, let every citizen co-operate in this movement with the board of health, the city council and the Civic association.

Remember the date, April 12-19.

Jurisdiction of State Courts.

Washington, April 5.—State courts were held by the Supreme court today to have jurisdiction in suits for damages for failure of railroads to comply with common law duties in transporting interstate commerce.
